An aerial photograph of the Bermuda Triangle region in the Atlantic Ocean. The landmasses of North America, the Caribbean, and South America are visible in shades of green and brown. A large, glowing blue triangle is superimposed on the dark blue ocean, highlighting the area of interest. The text 'BERMUDA TRIANGLE' is written in white, blocky letters across the bottom of the image, enclosed in white corner brackets. The entire image is set against a dark blue background with a faint grid pattern.
